

September 23, 2009 – 11:40am: Mr. Broadway called me this morning to inform me about the bids. Apparently, Granville had a chance to look at some if not all of the bid results. He said JAT is the lowest bid and BW Security is the 2nd lowest. He said there is a discrepancy in the bid submitted by DRS Security. According to Broadway, the hourly cost doesn't match up with the monthly cost. He told me to get back with him and see if he could offer any help/advice. He said he was just scrapping the bottom to try to get the contract.
